Please join us Sunday, Sept. 14, for the opening reception for our exhibit, 80 Years, 80 Days in our two galleries at 37 Buena Vista Road. The opening is free and open to the public.

This exhibit celebrates our 80 year Artaversary and showcases work by 80 artists who have been featured in our 80 Days of Art on-line series. As part of the month long exhibit which runs through Oct. 12, there will be a series of free demonstrations and talks by participating artists every Sunday from 1-4 p.m. A list of artists can be found on our website at <http://westhartfordart.org/upcoming-exhibitions/>.

Founded in 1934, the Art League started offering classes in a small one room schoolhouse on Mountain Road, and has grown to include three historic buildings that offer painting, pottery, drawing, collage, photography and more in four sessions of classes taught through the year. The Art League serves thousands of people on an annual basis from over 60 towns throughout CT who take classes, and exhibit their work in our monthly exhibits.

The 80 Years, 80 Days exhibit was made possible with funding from Presenting Sponsor the Ann and Edward Roberts Foundation, with additional funding provided by the Greater Hartford Arts Council.

Gallery hours are Thursday - Sunday from 1-4 p.m., or by appointment with the Executive Director. The Art Leagues two galleries are located at 37 Buena Vista Road In West Hartford. For more information, call 860-231-8019 or visit westhartfordart.org.
